Step 3: If you have exhibited at Kidney Week before, enter your booking code. If you do not have your booking code, email exhibits@asn-online.org to request it. Then click the orange Continue button.

If you are a new exhibitor, click the white Continue button.

Step 4: Follow the prompts to complete your application.

Step 5: On the summary page, sign the application in the white box using your mouse and click Submit.

Step 6: Select your billing option and submit your application. Non-profit companies should NOT pay for their booth in this step. Instead, email exhibits@asn-online.org with your proof of non-profit status and your booth fee will be adjusted accordingly. If you do not select a billing option and click submit on the final page, your application will not be finalized.

Once your application is submitted, you will receive an email with your contract, invoice, and payment information from service@mapyourshow.com. Be sure they are added to your safe sender list. If you do not receive the emails, check your spam folder.
